

June Deadrick

June Deadrick currently serves as the Vice-President of Community Relations for CenterPoint Energy. In this role, she is responsible for sustaining positive and productive relationships, having on-the-ground awareness of issues impacting our business, as well working to earn and maintain the trust and confidence of our stakeholders. She is a strong advocate for our commitment to the communities where we live, work and serve.

Before assuming her current post, she served as Senior Specialist with Reliant Energy's Government Affairs Division, Manager and later Director of Government Affairs for CenterPoint Energy. Prior to joining Reliant Energy, June served as the constituent services director for two members of the Houston City Council, Chris Bell and Judson Robinson, III. Before venturing into local government, June served as the Chief of Staff for Texas State Representative Fred M. Bosse (D-Houston).

A native of Palacios, Texas, she was a 1983 graduate of Palacios High School, a graduate of the University of Texas (Austin) with a Bachelor of Arts (BA) and received a Master of Liberal Arts (MLA), from the University of St. Thomas (Houston). An alumna of the Texas Lyceum Association, Leadership Texas, Leadership Houston and 2018 Graduate of Leadership America, June serves as a volunteer and board member for several non-profit organizations including: Miller Outdoor Theatre Advisory Board, Theater Under The Stars (TUTS), Texas Exes Board of Directors, Texas Exes Public Affairs Committee, UT System Chancellor's Executive Committee, DePelchin Children's Centers Board of Directors, Jr. League of Houston 100th Anniversary Sustainer Committee, The Bryan Museum (Galveston), Houston Harris County Sports Authority Foundation, Undies For Everyone, UT Health Development Committee, Longhorn Foundation, Annette Strauss Institute for Civic Engagement (Austin), Houston Arts Alliance, Presidents Council (University of St. Thomas) and a member of the Audit Committee for the Episcopal Health Foundation of Texas.

A Sustaining member of the Junior League of Houston, June is a member of the Texas Spring Cypress Chapter of Links, Inc., a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and a Life Member of the Texas Exes Association. In 2017, she was chosen from a pool of nationwide applicants to participate as a member of the Leadership America Class of 2018, the premier Leadership Development organization for corporate women throughout the United States. In January of 2018, Ms. Deadrick made history as she became the first African American female to Chair a post-season collegiate Bowl game as Chair of the Texas Bowl and again made history when she was chosen to chair the 2024 College Football National Championship Game which was held in Houston. In February of 2025, she was chosen to serve as the Chair of the Chancellor's Executive Committee for the University of Texas System. June is a member and lector at St. Mark's Episcopal Church in Houston.

AWARDS:

2023 Houston Texas Exes Legacy Dinner Honoree

2023 Community Service Award – Alpha Kappa Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority

2204 Houston Chapter WISE (Women In Sports & Events) Woman of Inspiration

2024 Houston Women's Chamber of Commerce Hall of Fame Inductee

2024 National Alumnae Association of Spelman College (Houston Chapter) Glass Ceiling Award